

Black Belt - Lean Coach

5 years' higher education and/or relevant experience
Manager

Duties and responsibilities:

- To be responsible for the execution of projects on the Aluminium Dunkerque site by applying Lean Six Sigma improvement concepts and methods in the areas of value creation, organisational improvement/transformation, productivity and performance management.
- Supporting plant sectors in developing and implementing their master improvement plan, guiding project teams in the problem-solving process and supporting them in creating value
- Focus on customer expectations and ensure effective communication at all levels of the organisation
- Demonstrate the right influencing skills to achieve consensus within teams towards common business improvement objectives
- Motivate and lead working groups

Six Sigma Black Belt and/or Advanced Lean certification;
Technical or professional training and/or relevant experience as well as significant experience in heavy industry;
Experience in the use of statistical tools/methodologies, quality methods and basic financial and basic financial principles;
Computer skills.
Adaptability / Ability to motivate and lead groups;
Ability to work in a team with minimum supervision and to promote the company's values of the company;
Ability to communicate with different internal clients and external collaborators;
Excellent writing skills.