

Daytime Capture Operator

Bac Professionnel maintenance/production management

Purpose:

The daytime capture operator maintains capture centers in good working order and takes measurements on centers and stacks.

Main duties:

- Carry out maintenance operations on gas and fume filtration, ancillary filters and dedusting equipment, and on the supply of alumina and coke from the unloader.
- Carries out environmental sampling and participates in metrology monitoring.
- In compliance with HSE fundamentals and operating procedures for himself/herself and others involved.
- Involved in improvement initiatives
- Takes part in process monitoring of department equipment

Technical knowledge (solenoid valves, distributors, air compressor motors, etc.) ;

Good knowledge of plant processes;

Bridge, cart and harness (working at height) approvals;

Good knowledge of IT tools (Office + SAP);

M2 and CMS skills ;

Knowledge of capture processes;

Troubleshooting and reliability, troubleshooting culture;

Working at great heights;

Team spirit, rigor, autonomy;

Analytical and decision-making skills;

Proactive - key player in problem-solving.