

Production Operator

Electrolysis sector

Vocational baccalaureate and production experience in an industrial environment

The Electrolysis Operator :

- Carries out tank operations at each station in accordance with the operating procedures (changing anodes, heat insulation, pouring metal, pouring bath, lifting anode frames, maintaining tanks and operating areas, dealing with incidents, etc.);
- Checks and deals with incidents on tanks (anode effect, DPAA, anode incident, etc.) in conjunction with the area or room manager;
- Operates production equipment (electrolysis service machine, trolleys) in normal and degraded situations;
- Completes shift monitoring documents (work sheets, overdue items, etc.);
- Carries out M1 tasks on the equipment for which he/she is responsible;
- Respects and ensures compliance with basic safety rules and operating procedures;
- Participates in improvement initiatives.

Production experience ;
Ability to drive cranes and trolleys;
Team spirit;
Rigour in terms of safety and quality, monitoring of workshop work;
Good autonomy;
Responsiveness;
Ability to analyse and take decisions;
Shift work.