

Safety Advisor

Carbon sector

Bac+2 with in-depth operational experience (8 years) or Bac+5 with significant operational experience (3 years) or team management.

Supervisor or manager

Duties and responsibilities:

- Supporting and assisting the operational line in the field in deploying the safety strategy in the area to which he/she reports, and maintaining a high level of standards within the sector's operational organisation.
- To be the guarantor in his/her sector of the safety management practices and tools made available to the operational line. To make the fundamentals and basics of safety operational (leadership, coaching) and to facilitate their implementation,
- Act as an expert for the site and the area to which he/she reports in his/her field: safety.
- Leading and supporting the safety roles of the operational teams in collaboration with the team manager
- Provide support and expertise in specialised security areas (skills centre) across the site as a business/standards guarantor
- Ensuring that initiatives, methods and strategies are deployed consistently across the various sectors in the zone (multi-skilling)
- Work jointly with the safety advisers in the other sectors to ensure that practices are consistent across the site.
- Participate in updating the safety instructions and single document for your sector.
- Monitor technological issues in the sector.

Theoretical knowledge in the field of safety (occupational safety management systems, industrial risks, process safety, standards, risk and accident analysis tools, safety management system, site safety fundamentals);

Experience in project management;

Experience in an industrial or production environment is highly recommended;

Interpersonal skills / Good interpersonal skills / Thoroughness / Resourcefulness / Responsiveness / Sense of initiative / Analytical and decision-making skills / Team spirit / Field experience / Safety leadership.